Zynger and his team have planned events in Southern California, across the US, and internationally. Through Ryan's creative and skillful approach, he has elevated the fundraising event programs of many non-profit clients and helped them raise hundreds of thousands of dollars each year.

In 2015, Ryan was hand picked to produce a headline event showcase for the Special Events Show managing a team of 40+ industry vendors. Ryan believes in nurturing new talent and every year host's international interns to train them on US event planning, fundraising and branding techniques. You'll also find Ryan giving his time and expertise on various educational webinars and industry events throughout the year.
